Cardiff gets $9,337 grant

CARDIFF — Community planning studies grants totalling $57,325 have been allocated to eight Ontario municipalities, were announced by Housing Minister Claude Bennett.

The grants, one of which goes to Cardiff Township, are designed to assist municipalities and planning boards in preparing official plans and zoning by-laws or in bringing these up to an acceptable level. Cardiff's grant is for $9,337.

The funds can also be used in preparing zoning by-laws to replace minister's zoning orders, to finance planning programs for unorganized territories or for other relevant planning studies.

These grants are allocated as part of the Ministry of Housing's objective of helping municipalities and planning boards prepare sound planning programs.

AHM Council approve fencing project at Minden Fairgrounds

MINDEN — The Agricultural Society presented a brief to Anson, Hindon and Minden council last week on a $22,00 fencing project the Society hope to implement.

Mrs. Loretta Nesbitt, president of the Society gave council a complete report on how much fencing they hope to do at the Fairgrounds (approximately 3000 feet) which includes three 10 foot gates and three four foot pedestrian gates. The fence will be eight feet high and made of two inch mesh. It will be erected on part of the concession road north of the curling rink, then along Bobcaygeon Road where a white wooden fence now stands and will then run straight back to Beaver Creek with gates at the tennis courts, at the community centre parking lot, off Bobcaygeon Road at both the front and back of the curling rink and two gates along the concession road to the ball diamond.

The Society has put up a maximum of $5,000 towards the project and hope to raise the balance through Parks grants and Canada Works grants.

AHM own the land where the fairgrounds are located and therefore the group approached council on Wednesday to apply for the various grants available to complete the project. Council was all in favour and also agreed to apply for a Parks grant and to Canada Works. The Society hope to begin construction by September of this year.

$3,500 damage in three car collision, two charged

HALIBURTON — Early last Thursday morning, Lance Easton 51, of Haliburton was eastbound following a dump truck on Hwy. 121, when he attempted to overtake it and pass. However, he failed to see a 1975 pickup truck driven by Julie Gray 31, of Haliburton travelling westbound. Easton in an attempt to miss Gray, veered into a driveway on the south side of the road. No damage was incurred to his '78 stationwagon. Gray on the otherhand, veered into a north lot and struck a 1978 Ford Van, causing some $1,500 in damage. The Gray pickup sustained some $2000 in damages.

Investigating OPP Constable Al Bibby has charged Easton with attempting to pass when the roadway was not clear of approaching traffic and Gray with failing to wear a seat belt assembly. No injuries were reported.

Donald barn fire

DONALD — A barn and all its contents went up in smoke around 8 pm on Wednesday evening on the Old Donald Road, about 8 km. east of Haliburton. It was located on the property of Donald Emmerson of Waterloo.

The fire was reported by a neighbour, Wm. Hartin, but the Haliburton Fire Dept. could not save the building. Damage is estimated at $30,000. There were no animals in the barn but Mr. Emmerson reports contents worth $3000 destroyed. Some of the contents included a farm wagon, tent trailer, harnesses,

Council wants jurors pay hiked to $40 per day

MINDEN — In response to a resolution from the City of Woodstock in regards to raising the pay for jurors, Anson, Hindon and Minden council were in full favour, with an amendment.

At the present time, jurors are paid $10 per day plus mileage and a meal. Woodstock's resolution asked that council endorse a resolution, stating that jurors be paid $40 per day after seven days of jury duty. Minden councillor, Al Coneybeare suggested to council that he was in favour of this but he felt that the $40 should start the first day the juror starts and not after seven days. Councillor Lyle McKnight said, "I also feel that a person serving jury duty should be paid $40 a day, no matter how long he is called upon."

Council then unanimously passed the resolution from Woodstock, with the amendment that $40 be paid to a juror, commencing from the first day.

"CITIZEN'S ARREST"

MINDEN — The following is being provided to clear up any possible misconceptions as to a citizen's powers to arrest. As previously stated in last week's Express, there are not too many offences for which a citizen can legally arrest. Wim Magee of the Ontario Provincial Police detachment in Minden told The Express last week, "I wish to clarify the matter in detail so there will be no confusion in the public's mind that may result in an arrest being made in error."

Any citizen who feels they may use this authority must be very careful and would require knowledge of legal terms such as "an indictable offence" and "criminal offence." An arrest made in error could lead to civil proceedings against the person making a false arrest. A citizen may arrest anyone he finds committing an indictable offence (i.e. murder, rape, theft).

A citizen may arrest a person on "reasonable and probable grounds" that he believes has committed a criminal offence and is escaping from and freshly pursued by persons who have lawful authority to arrest that person.

Anyone who is the owner or a person in lawful possession of property, or a person authorized by the owner or by a person in lawful possession of property, may arrest without warrant a person whom he finds committing a criminal offence on or in relation to that property.

A citizen after arresting anyone shall forthwith deliver the arrested person to a peace officer. The OPP wish to bring the above information to your attention should someone feel they were possibly misinformed, or took the matter lightly, and tried to perform an unlawful arrest, which may result in serious consequences.

Both drivers were charged by Weldon Popp with failing to report a collision.

Oil Price Increase

Nine oil companies received authorization to raise their gasoline and fuel oil prices, but the AIB reduced the size of increases planned by two. B.P. Federated Cooperatives was told to cut its planned increase for the same products from one cent to 0.6. In total, the approved price increases average 0.5 cents a gallon.

RECORD URANIUM EXPORT PRICE

The Canadian government has approved a $52.00 a pound price for uranium to be exported by RIO ALGOM LTD. to the Tennessee Valley Authority during 1979. This is the highest price ever to be approved by Canada and is, we feel, indicative of the trend in price which uranium will follow in the years immediately ahead.

McLaughlin sees Liberals winning next election

LINDSAY —“I think that the Liberals are going to get back in. I also think that Canada is going to near bankruptcy and the government is going to blame the workers.” New Democratic Parties candidate for Northumberland and Durham, Fred McLaughlin, gave these predictions at a dinner and dance held at the Legion Hall in Lindsay.

The NDP candidate went on to say that his party does not have all the answers, but “together we are striving for a healthy economy.” We the workers of Canada do not want hand-outs, we want jobs, he said. Mr. McLaughlin told the gathering that the anti-inflation board was set up to control wages and prices, and all we have seen are our dollars eaten away. Inflation rise and our dollars for commodities shortened.

He went on to say that one of the major drawbacks unions have discovered is that all their work cannot be realized unless they pressure government through the political process. The old line parties of Canada have shown that they would bully the labour force. One way in which this has been done is through the AIB. This has deprived the worker of the standard of living which he had fought so hard to achieve.

Vandals on rampage near Balsam Lake, $1000 in damage

COBOCONK — More than a $1000 damage was done to the interior of a cottage owned by Shelley Shores of Toronto at Indian Point on Balsam Lake last week.

Nothing was stolen from the cottage but vandals smashed records, tossed eggs and beer at ceilings, walls and floors, discharged a fire extinguisher, broke dishes and turned a TV game upsidedown. They then continued on their rampage by kicking plaster walls, rummaging through the bedrooms, strewn pillow stuffing all about and breaking a shower enclosure.

Thieves also broke into the cottage of Robert Shaw of Agincourt and stole a black and white TV and a radio, valued at $125. Damage to patio doors where the thieves entered, was estimated at $5.

Investigation is being carried out by Constable Welch.

“At a time when our country is in dire need of economic action, the powers that be seem to shrug their shoulders with hopeless gesture of blind faith that the free market will right itself. Yet their very faith has brought our country to the brink of ruin. It is now the time for the Canadian worker to transcend his immediate environment and participate actively in the political process, said Mr. McLaughlin.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENT

For the year ended December 31, 1977

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Accrual Accounting

The accrual method for reporting revenue and expenditure has been used with the exception of reporting of charges for net long-term liabilities. Principal and interest charges are not accrued from the due date of payment to the end of the fiscal year.

(b) Fixed Assets

Fixed Assets are charged to current expenditure unless financed by long-term debt. Principal and interest charges on net long-term liabilities are included in expenditure in the period due.

2. RESERVE FOR WORKING FUNDS

The reserve for working funds at December 31, 1977 is applicable to the elementary and secondary school operations of the board as follows:

Elementary	$ 82,000
Secondary	118,000

3. LIABILITY FOR SICK LEAVE BENEFITS

Under the sick leave benefit plan, unused sick leave can accumulate and employees after a certain period of employment (teaching staff - 10 years, non-teaching staff - 5 years) may become entitled to a cash payment of 50% of the unused credits to a maximum of 50% of annual salary when they leave the board's employment.

These accumulated days, to the extent that they could be used to determine the cash payment to an employee on terminating, amount to $311,500 as at December 31, 1977. No provision has been made on account of the sick leave benefit plan.

4. NET LONG-TERM LIABILITY REPAYMENTS

Of the net long-term liabilities outstanding of $1,699,700 principal amounting to $556,700 plus interest amounting to $546,018 is payable over the next five years as follows:

ARE BROUGHT TO YOU BY THE FOLLOWING FIRMS INTERESTED IN CONSERVING ENERGY

Play it cool with hot water

by Richard Charles

It's so easy to forget what a blessing it is to have hot water constantly at our fingertips, instead of having perhaps to fetch the water from a well and heat it on a wood stove. Unfortunately, it is also easy to overlook the fact that hot water doesn't come cheaply — it is the second most costly item on our home energy bill, next to home heating.

We can obviously do ourselves a good turn if we heat the water efficiently, stop the heat from escaping until we need the water, and then make the best use of it.

The main wasters in a hot water system are the uninsulated tank and pipes, and the dripping tap, but there are several other items to keep an eye on, and not least the people who turn the taps on and off.

To start with the heater — first, its thermostat should be set at about 60°C (140°F) for efficient use. If you have a model heated by oil or gas, have it checked once or twice a year to make sure the heat goes into the water rather than just up the chimney. There is also a drain tap near the base of the water heater, and you should draw off a pail of water about once a month to get rid of any sediments that collect there.

Take a look at the insulation — most tanks have built-in insulation nowadays, but if yours hasn't, you can make a worthwhile saving by wrapping insulating batts or rolls around it. Also, if the hot water pipes run through a cool area, particularly along the basement ceiling, cover them with insulated strips (which you can buy) to reduce heat loss.

The next item should not need a routine check — it's the dripping tap or shower-head. It will pay you to fix it or have it fixed right away. One drip per second (not a fast rate) can waste about 175 gallons in a month, so it really matters — and think of the relief of not hearing that constant drip, drip, drip. A new washer is usually all it takes to stop the leak.

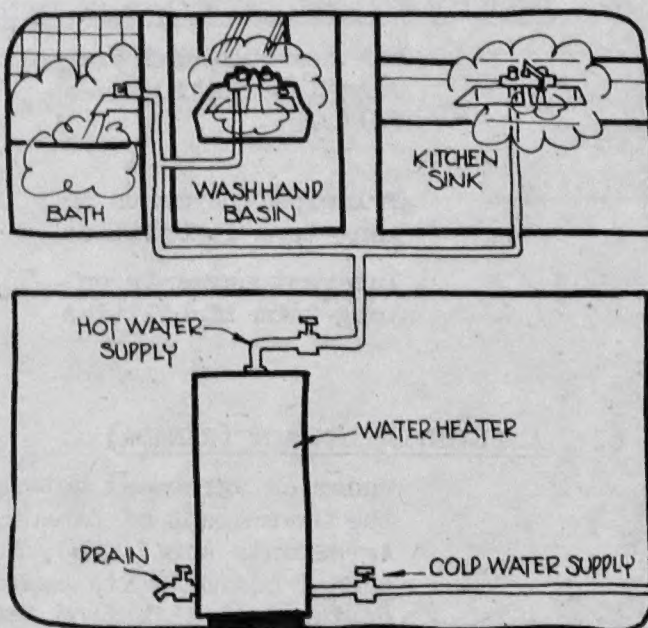

So the water is being heated efficiently in an insulated tank, and it flows through pipes that are also insulated wherever they need it, and it only emerges from the taps when someone lets it out. Now, perhaps, the real trouble starts, because it is just so easy to draw hot water, and let it run and run.

To make savings in the bathroom — use less water by taking a shower instead of a bath, or take a warm bath (not a blazing hot one) in just enough water for comfort. You can also install a water-saver on the shower-head, which lets you control the rate of flow according to the varying need while you are showering. If you shave, partially fill the bowl with hot water instead of using running water — or save even more energy with an electric shaver.

To save in the kitchen — don't rinse dishes under the tap, but with water in a pan or half of a double sink. When you need boiling water, start with water from the hot tap.

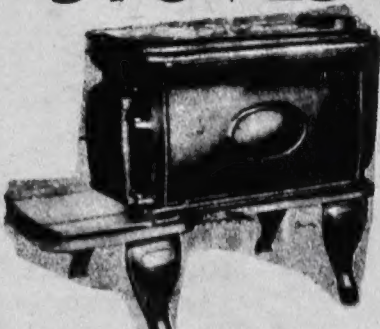

In winter, let the warm water in the bath or sink sit for a while to heat the room, instead of sending the heat down the drain.

This is just a brief rundown of the possibilities. Facts and figures about water heating, and instructions on fixing a dripping tap, are to be found in 100 Ways To Save Energy and Money in The Home, issued by the Office of Energy Conservation, Department of Energy, Mines and Resources. Just ask for it from Box 3500, Station C, Ottawa, Ontario, K1Y 4G1.

Kincardine team wins trip to Nassau in tournament

TORONTO — Darlene Bond of Bruce Bowling Lanes, Kincardine, bowled 1010 without handicap for five games which enabled her team of Denise Jameson, Marg Spruce, Edith Johns and Betty Therrien to win the Provincial finals of the Ladies Daytime tournament at Thorncliffe Bowlerama.

This annual event, sponsored by the Bowling Proprietors Association of Ontario and Marvel Ad Display of Kitchener is restricted to women bowlers participating in daytime ladies leagues in B.P.A.O. member centres.

To reach the Provincial finals, teams had to qualify in earlier elimination rounds consisting of house, zone, regional finals which offered merchandise prizes to all winners at each stage.

The survivors of the regional finals, namely, Easter, Western, and Northern Ontario met in a five game handicap tournament to decide the winners of the trip to Nassau in the Bahamas.

All bowlers were housed at the fabulous Town Inn Hotel and were treated to a dinner atop the CN tower followed by a night at the O'Keefe centre. Bruce Bowling Centre of Kincardine finished the five-game block with a total of 5483, 329 pins ahead of runner-up Motor City Bowl of Oshawa with 5154. Third place went to Notre Dame Bowl in Sudbury with 5136.

14 rules change for 1978

A total of 14 rule changes were adopted by the Canadian Football League's executive committee at League meetings held recently at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto.

1. Use of a standardized kicking tee, not more than one inch high, will be permitted for field goal and convert attempts.
2. Following an unsuccessful field goal attempt which results in a single point, the team scored against may elect to scrimmage the football at its own 35-yard line or at the point of last scrimmage.
3. When the defending team is guilty of an infraction (other than pass interference) on a convert attempt, the attacking team may accept the half-the-distance-to-the-goal line penalty.
4. The penalty for pass-interference by the defending team on a convert attempt will give the attacking team a first down on the one-yard line and the automatic two-point penalty is eliminated.
5. Quick movement by the quarterback toward the centre shall be subject to penalty for attempting to draw the defending team offside, if (a) the quarterback has made the quick movement to the centre without the football being snapped immediately, or (b) the quarterback has assumed his stance with his hands under the centre and had bobbed his head, moved his shoulders or flexed his knees in a jerking motion without the football being snapped, or (c) the quarterback has

6. Use of the horn by officials will be discontinued.

7. Penalty, for an infraction which occurs after the football has been kicked and before possession has been gained by the receiving team, shall be applied as follows: (a) foul by the kicking team (other than no yards) — at point of last scrimmage or point of kickoff or point of actual kick on a return kick as the case may be; (b) foul by receiving team (other than contacting the kicker or illegal blocking of the kicker or an onside player) — at point possession gained by the receiving team. If possession gained in goal area, the penalty is to be applied from the receiving team's 10-yard line.

8. Below the waist blocking restrictions which applied previously only on punt returns will now apply on kickoff returns as well.

9. A team shall not be penalized for an offside pass which occurs in the course of recovering a fumble.

10. Effective for the 1979 season, a player's number shall be shown on his upper arms or shoulders, in addition to the front and back of his jersey. This may be implemented voluntarily for the 1978 season.

11. Definition of an onside player in relation to a teammate in possession of the ball, is one who is not closer to the opponent's deadline than such player in possession.

12. A coach shall not be permitted on the playing field at any time during the game, including a time-out for player injury or other reason, except with permission of the referee.

13. If players of both teams legally gain possession simultaneously of a loose football, it shall be awarded to the team which last had possession.

14. The non-offending team may now decline a penalty resulting from an infraction of a rule before the football had been put into play from scrimmage, and the down will be repeated.

GOALTENDING

Budding goalers are always asking me: "How would I stop a breakaway? How should I stop a screened shot? When do I move out? How do you tell what the attacker is going to do?" I could tell them all kinds of things beginning with "...well, it depends on the situation."

How fast is the attacker moving on the breakaway? Is he coming straight at you or from an angle? Where are you in the net? Is anyone coming back to help you?

But you know what? It's a waste of time on my part to teach a boy how to play goal at this time, unless he is an excellent skater, stands on his feet and keeps his stick on the ice. If he can't do these things, he can't make the necessary move to cancel out the attacker's scoring effort.

I look at a young goaler and ask him to do one thing before anything else: let's see you skate, son. And I don't mean skate forward or skate without pads. He must skate in full equipment. I get him on a face-off circle and have him skate forward and backward both ways. I look for one thing in particular: can he get the outside leg over the inside leg without losing his balance?

One thing seems to recur time and time again. A boy can go one way fairly well, but he looks like a dog running on a slick pond going the other way. That's not strange when you stop to think about it. How many of us can write or throw equally well with both hands, kick equally well with both feet, hit successfully from either side of home plate? The answer is obvious. We all tend to favour one side or the other. And yet, if the need arises, we can be taught to perform equally with either hand or foot.

I recently saw some statistics: seven out of ten goals are scored along the ice, one out of ten are scored above the knee. That makes sense. We naturally do things better with our hands than with our feet. Further, the width of the body covers more net, a high shot is closer to the goaler's eye — you can see why a save is easier to make above the knee.

Most goals then should be scored along the ice. Oddly enough, seven out of ten shots are fired at goal from the knees to the shoulder—which shows you how little attention we have paid to the fundamentals and why the Russians have been able to catch us so quickly.

The thing you have to do now is find out which is the boy's weak side — and you're liable to have a problem finding a good side — then teach the boy how to cross his right foot over his left, his left over his right. This of course doesn't happen overnight. The boy can stand there and watch you do it until you collapse in exhaustion. He only learns from doing it himself. In the final analysis he must be his own teacher, through trial and error.

Carnarvon Scouts plant trees

On Saturday, April 29th, the Carnarvon Scouts were busy planting 1200 trees in the Trees for Canada program.

The trees were planted on Lot 7, Concession 6 of Stanhope Township with permission of the Martin Brothers who live on the Buckslide Road.

Eleven of our 12 Scouts, along with three leaders and one father took part in the project.

We appreciate the help of Dave Leader of the Ministry of Natural Resources from whom the Scouts received the 1200 trees.

READS YOUR STARS

If you were born this week: You are neat and tidy and likely believe wholeheartedly in that old saying, "a place for everything, and everything in its place." You are generous with your time and talents and are a loyal and helpful friend. You like to save for that rainy day and are rarely down to your last penny.

ARIES (3/21-4/19): Let your light shine forth. Aries. Express your feelings and your affections freely. A practical matter provides needed stimulus for your creativity. New moon may set financial plans into motion. Later days are a loving experience.

TAURUS (4/20-5/20): Concentrate on getting your home in ship-shape condition. Whether it's spring cleaning, redecorating, or whatever, your energies are most constructively spent near the hearth. And, while your focus is there, tend to a certain family matter, too. Later, make your wish and blow out the candles.

GEMINI (5/21-6/20): First days highlight social activities, Gem, and your gadabout heart is delighted. Then, be quiet and listen to that little voice in the back of your head; it has something quite important to tell you. Days sashay by with an S, for sparkling, smashing and sporting.

MOONCHILD (6/21-7/22): Your own ego could prevent you from seeing others' points of view. Try to be objective, Moonbaby; you'll feel better in the long run and so will your piggybank. Put business first and pleasure second for greatest success. Old friend's reappearance gets mixed reviews from you.

LEO (7/23-8/22): Listen, to what a younger person has to say, Leo; you know, "out of the mouths of babes," etc. Keep week's direction firmly in mind; use compass if needed. Or you'll find yourself operating at cross-purposes, not to mention getting lost. Week closes on a happy note with welcome fun 'n' games.

VIRGO (8/23-9/22): Do a bit of mental housecleaning this week, Virgo. Banish negative thoughts and attitudes. Develop budding new friendships and listen for inspiration. Scratch those itchy feet by making get-away plans. Include lover, of course.

LIBRA (9/23-10/23): Spicy possibilities may remain just that — much talk and little action. Libby. Sorry about that. New moon could represent opportunity in disguise; cooperative effort is spotlighted. Week spirals to a kissing finale.

SCORPIO (10/24-11/22): In the game of follow-the-leader, you're not crazy about number two position. You can, however, learn a new and interesting tidbit if you'll accept it. Scorp. Later, the seed is planted; now, we'll just have to see if it grows.

SAGITTARIUS (11/23-12/21): Don't get carried away during first days, Sag; that beckoning boulevard ends in a blind alley. Mid-week does bring new project to keep you off the streets and out of mischief. Latter days see Venus in a flirty mood.

CAPRICORN (12/22-1/19): Avoid arguments at home and don't overwork your authority. When in doubt, Cappy baby, keep your sweet mouth shut. Lover may require a helping hand, and look for creative solutions to several sticky wickets. Later, rest up.

AQUARIUS (1/20-2/19): Gossip and idle chit-chat run rampant, Aquarius. You can make important contacts, but do it later in week, please. Domestic activities are accented, including, perhaps, a spot of home improvement. Finally, a romantic romp.

PISCES (2/20-3/20): Wind up an old financial commitment, but try not to embark on a new one during first days, Pisces. Then, news arrives and plans are made concerning it. If latter days see you sticking close to home, how about throwing a party?
